

My main concern: My privacy will be infringed

We're testing out different ways for people to report their miles, some of which don't involve any technology at all. RUC would also require strong legal privacy protection.

My main concern: I will be double taxed

The gas taxes you pay at the pump will act as a pre-payment of the RUC so that way, you won't be charged twice!

My main concern:

as a rural or long-distance commuter, RUC seems unfair

Under a RUC system, rural drivers will pay less than they would with a gas tax even if they drive more than urban drivers.

My main concern: paying more than I do now

A RUC makes it so drivers of EV, hybrid and newer more fuel-efficient vehicles would contribute their fair share of taxes to help fund road maintenance. Drivers of older, less fuel-efficient vehicles will pay less than they do under the current gas tax.

My main concern:

RUC is too complicated to implement

We're testing out different ways to implement the RUC to make it as simple and convenient as possible.
